

Creative & Media - Capability Sheet

Version v1.0 | 2026-07-24 | Draft preparation only

Public summary for evaluation. It is not an executed agreement, a warranty, or a certification. Final scope, controls, residency, and terms are defined in your order form, data-processing agreement, and counsel-reviewed contract, which control over this document.

01

What this department is for

Prepare researched, value-first, multi-format editorial work. It is a specialist workbench operated through Jueni Biashara AI: it prepares the work, keeps the source and next move visible, and sends decisions that carry weight to the people responsible.

02

Best for

Editorial research, scripts, visual briefs, format adaptation, quality review, and release preparation.

03

What it prepares

- Source-backed story briefs
- Multi-format production plans
- Claim and quality review packs

04

What it needs from you

- Audience and subject
- Approved claims
- Rights and release policy

05

What changes

- Stronger research-to-story continuity
- Consistent editorial standard
- Reviewable release evidence

06

Human authority stays with you

Public claims, copyrighted material, scheduling, account access, and publication require explicit authority.

07

Deployment status

Draft preparation only. Installation follows a scoped deployment contract - isolation, credentials, tools, storage, logs, updates, rollback, support ownership, representative validation, and acceptance review - before any live business system is touched.
